

New Patient Exam Holiday Special

at Haas Wellness Center - Charlotte, NC

Haas Wellness Center, in Charlotte, is offering a more affordable way for new patients to check on many aspects of their health just in time for the holiday season. Through the end of this year, their special new patient exam—including kinesiology exam, structural evaluation, vitals, nutritional scan, allergy sensitivity and heavy metal screening, protein digestion check, advanced urine analysis and AcuGraph scan along with a one-hour report of all related findings—costs $299 instead of the regular cost of $430, a savings of more than 25 percent. Owner and lead practitioner Kenneth Haas, DC, CCSP, has helped 15,000-plus patients reach their highest health potential. Darryl Roberts is a naturopathic doctor, Certified Natural Health Professional, Certified Flower Essence Practitioner and a plant-based chef. Location: 3315 Springbank Lane, Ste. 102. For more information or to make an appointment, call 704-837-2420 or visit HaasWellnessCenters.com.
